Use Array Methods: filter, map, reduce, etc to implement functions below:

1. Create a function using function declaration named sum with one parameter of Array type, the returned result is the sum of all elements which are greater than 20.
2. Create a function using function expression named getNewArray with one parameter of String Array, return a new array which contains all string, length is greater than and equal to 5, and contains letter 'a'.